GARMENTS.

Stock taking drives us to make prices that seem almost too low. We are so anxious to close these goods that we sometimes make prices lower than good business should allow.

Lots of Children's and Misses' Garments at half price. This means a good liberal loss on our part on garments that are nearly as good styles next as this season, as Children's Garments change style but very little.

Ladies' Garments have been selling very fast under present prices. (Yes, faster than ever before in a January sale.) The reason is that they are marked at February prices and the trade realizes that fact.

Furs are in the same sale and as we have more than usual to sell, price has not been lowered. Our object is close them out now.

All of our Lace Curtains are in this sale. Special sale prices on several numbers.
